Please provide the additional information required to confirm you are a DISPLACED WORKER to complete your file and/or verification. Please provide the information below as it pertains to your situation:

- Statement or notice of layoff or termination of employment
- Statement of to date unemployment payment benefits received

In general, a person is considered a dislocated worker if they meet one of the following conditions:

- They have lost their job.
- They have been laid off or received a lay-off notice from their job.
 - They are receiving unemployment benefits due to being laid off or losing a job and are unlikely to return to a previous occupation.
- They are self-employed but are unemployed/underemployed due to economic conditions or natural disaster.
- They are a displaced homemaker. A displaced homemaker is generally a person who previously provided unpaid services to the family (e.g., a stay-at-home mom or dad), is no longer supported by the husband/wife, is unemployed or underemployed, and is having trouble finding or upgrading employment.

If a person quits work, generally they are not considered a dislocated worker even if, for example, the person is receiving unemployment benefits.

If you don't meet the criteria then you will need to correct your FAFSA application at www.fafsa.ed.gov
